ABOUT US

The House of PMO is a professional body for PMO professionals where they can develop themselves, support the development of others and contribute to the development of the PMO profession.

Created in 2013, the House of PMO is a home for anyone working in project, programme and portfolio management offices who wants to keep growing, learning and connecting with others. Whether you're just starting out, worked in PMO for years or are a seasoned director, the House of PMO has something for you.

The House of PMO provides a range of services for PMO professionals, from our resource library and weekly events, to the larger gatherings of the PMO Conferences plus the range of qualifications and the PMO Competency Framework.

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP

COMPETENCY FRAMEWORK & COMAEA

You'll get access to the PMO Competency Framework via Comaea. An easy to use online tool that helps you assess your current skills, identify areas for development, and plan your career progression with clarity.

Based on the industry-standard PMO Competency Framework, this tool allows you to benchmark your capabilities, track your growth over time, and align your development with the needs of your role or organisation.

Whether you're looking to build confidence in a new position or aiming for your next step, it's a powerful way to take control of your professional journey.

EVENTS & SESSIONS

House of PMO members gain access to a rich programme of events designed to inform, inspire, and connect PMO professionals. Members can join live virtual sessions featuring industry experts and practitioners who share practical insights, experiences, and emerging trends across all aspects of PMO work. These interactive sessions encourage learning and collaboration within a supportive professional community.

In addition, members enjoy on-demand access to a library of recorded sessions for flexible learning, as well as discounted rates for House of PMO conferences and partner events — offering valuable opportunities to network, exchange ideas, and deepen their PMO expertise.

PMO RESOURCES

With over ten years of events, individual members gain comprehensive access to an extensive library of recordings, presentation decks, insights, and reports, including every past PMO Conference presentation. This archive provides a wealth of practical knowledge and real-world examples, making it an invaluable resource for PMO practitioners at any stage of their career. By exploring these materials, members can deepen their understanding of the competencies, knowledge, skills, and behaviours required to excel in their roles, while also staying up to date with emerging trends and best practices in the PMO field.

We refer to this as the “20%”—the informal learning that complements formal training and on-the-job experience, forming a crucial part of the 70/20/10 model of professional development and supporting continuous growth and effectiveness in professional practice.

GROWING WITH THE PROFESSION

The House of PMO have developed four levels of certifications, certified by APMG International.

These four levels are based on the role profiles seen in the PMO Competency Framework.

Training courses are delivered by Accredited Training Organisations and can be sourced through APMG International.
